Peru Shaken by Quake, 24 May Have Died

LIMA, Peru (AP)—A tidal wave that battered half a dozen fishing towns Sunday completely covered the island of Lobos de Atueria, 10 miles west of Pimental, a pilot reported today. After an inspection flight, he estimated the wave was 60 feet high.

At least 24 persons may have lost their lives in the tidal wave. Two are known dead. Nine persons inhabited Lobos de Atueria, said officials of the fertilizer company they worked for.

A fishing boat with 15 aboard has not been seen since it set out from Pimental 20 minutes before the huge wave struck.

The pilot said he saw no sign of life on the island. He landed on Chichayo, another island, and estimated from signs of stampiness that the tidal wave may have reached 90 feet.

Still another island, Lobos de Telra, showed no sign of life. The fertilizer company said the island is nonproductive and is believed uninhabited.

Four earthquakes shook Peru's northern coast Monday night in the same region swept by the tidal wave.

The shocks spread new alarm in Lambayeque Province 450 miles north of Lima.

Multiple Deaths Wipe Out 3 Whole Families

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Number 7 became a symbol of tragedy on the nation's highways in the past 10 days.

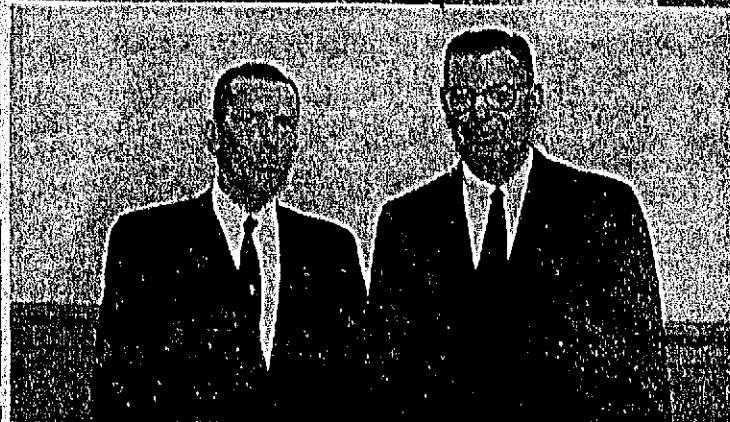

Three families were virtually wiped out in four accidents, each of which killed seven persons. Twenty of the 28 victims were children. Four were mothers.

Viewing the multiple-death-dealing crashes, the National Safety Council issued a safe driving warning for motorists who will set out Thursday on a Thanksgiving holiday that for some may last four days. Most fatal accidents occur near home, the council said, where most drivers will be operating during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Last of the large-toll accidents occurred Monday in Toltec, Ariz., when a Southern Pacific freight train sliced into an automobile at a crossing. The collision dragged the auto a half-mile, killing Annabelle Martin, 30; her son and daughter, aged 5 and 3; Mrs. Ralph Jewel, 2; her two sons, aged 3 and 15 months, and Benjamin Martin, 37, Mrs. Martin's brother-in-law.

Only hours earlier, searchers near Eugene, Ore., found the bodies of a family of seven in Dexter Lake. Authorities said

Johnson and DeGaulle Talk Over Problems

By JOSEPH E. DYMAN

PARIS (AP)—Lyndon B. Johnson, U.S. vice president-elect, and French President Charles de Gaulle had a 45-minute conference today. Johnson said they discussed "the wide range of problems confronting the people of the world."

The two men met in De Gaulle's private office. Although it was billed in advance as a courtesy call, the two men immediately got down to serious talk.

Johnson is in Paris attending a meeting of parliamentarians from NATO countries. He was invited to the palace in order to give de Gaulle his first official contact with the incoming American administration.

On coming from the meeting, Johnson said he had extended his "congratulations and congratulations" to de Gaulle, who is celebrating his 70th birthday today.

Then Johnson drove across the Seine River to lunch with Premier Michel Debre and a dozen or more French political and government figures.

The vice president-elect was accompanied by De Gaulle's residence by U.S. Ambassador Amory Houghton.

Fashions Are Headache to the Industry

By RUBY WEIL
NEW YORK (AP)—Spring may be a song to the poets but to the fashion industry it's a headache.

Depending on the area and the time of year spring doesn't last long enough starts to late (when Easter is in April) or is practically non-existent. As a result women shoppers are likely to skip from winter to summer.

Unlike those of us who talk about the weather but do nothing about it some people in the fashion industry are doing something. They're simply out to abolish spring.

The evidence was presented to store buyers and the fashion press who have been looking at spring fashion collections while ordinary mortals were still shaking the mothballs out of their winter wardrobes. They found a spreading movement toward any-season fashions.

The movement has been under way for several seasons. But this year it is crystallizing. Fabrics, colors and types of clothes all contribute to the trend toward clothes

Valiant Wife Versus Possessive Mother-in-Law

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

I read every letter you print on husbands doing this and that and wives wanting to know what they change.

My husband spent 10 out of the first 12 years of our married life with other girls. Every time I started divorce proceedings, he'd beg me to drop them. It was awful. His family tried to take our children.

Finally I decided I could live with him if we moved away. We did and are very happy. It's been six years now and he never leaves me alone. He's wonderful. I didn't make him promise anything. He promised a lot I didn't expect him to keep, but he has. Maybe there are other men like him who have learned their lesson and would come home and settle down.

When a husband goes all out to make you fall out of love with him, he has to go all out to make you fall in love again. That's what my husband tells me.

It's hard to separate hurt from hate. If my in-laws come to see us or we visit them, I go to pieces. I used to love them dearly but they hurt me so much I can't forget. My mother-in-law still says things to hurt me. I cry for a week afterward. My husband says, "Count me out. That's between you and Mama."

I love him so much but she goes on saying things to mix me up, then the past comes before me. Just like a movie and it seems as if I never loved him. I know I do but I'm afraid his mother will keep on and some day all my love for my husband will really vanish. —Mixed up

Dear Mixed-up: Your mother-in-law's early remarks show that you've won in this battle over her son. Deep down in her consciousness, whether or not she even realizes it herself, this is a battle so long as you fight back, even son.

So long as you fight back even if only with tears—you play right that can be worn practically year round.

The weatherman is not entirely responsible. The airplane plays a part. So do modern heating in winter and air conditioning in summer and the steady increase in vacations any time of the year.

For the airborne traveler there are more and more costumes with built-in comfort and wrinkle resistance.

The higher priced ones are designed for "the woman who jets from climate to climate" as one designer phrases it. This customer's coordinated costume is brought down to budget level in handy outfits for the coach flight passenger.

The change in heating and cooling patterns of homes theaters restaurants in recent years has brought about a steady increase in the dress-plus costume. Dressing in layers now is recognized as a way to comfort.

And more and more the anytime vacation is influencing fashion. Resort fashions merge into those for spring and into summer until the line often is wiped out.

into her hands. Never, by word deed, or look, give her the satisfaction of seeing a barb hit the mark. If it all but kills you, smile and say nothing. If your love for your husband has been strong enough to survive the turbulent past, it's strong enough to do this.

Dear Helen:

I pray you will print this. It may help others as well as me. I'd do anything for my sisters but I don't feel they would do the same for me. All I want is for them to show me love. In my opinion love can be shared by a friendly telephone call or letter. But they don't even do this.

I have children to keep me busy and believe me they do, but I still get lonesome to hear from my sisters. What on earth can I do to get them to call or write me? —Lonesome Sister, Natchez, Miss.

Dear Lonesome Sister: Some people thank heaven when relatives leave them in peace. But Southerners, and I see you are one, feel differently. I know, for my grandmother's folks were from the South and they all felt deeply about family ties.

The surest way to awaken that kinship feeling in your sisters is to keep on loving and doing little thoughtful things for them. I never had any sisters of my own but I have been blessed by certain friends who are like sisters to me. One lives in Spain now but distance is no barrier. She is forever sending me small gifts and I her —maybe it's only a gay handkerchief or scarf; sometimes it's just a news clipping—no matter, it shows we're thinking of one another. Try this on your sisters.

Dear Helen:

I am a married woman with three lovely children. I have an insane husband—he is so jealous he beats me. I have many things wrong with me on account of this. He tried to get the children to tell if I left early or if I got any phone calls. He threatens to punish them if they don't tell. I have started a divorce several times but he always comes around and begs me to take him back. He is always knocking our boy around and he is the best of the three. Please tell me what to do with a good-for-nothing man like this.

Missing Bride Case Is Closed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The case of the missing bride is closed.

When a beautiful long white tulle wedding gown was left on a National Airlines plane recently, a search was made for its owner.

The only clue was the label of a Boston store (Crawford Hodge, Ltd.). Correspondence and phone calls finally located the owner.

The young girl, who said she wished to remain anonymous, told this story: "I broke my engagement, my parents were both quite ill, my sister had lost her baby and I lost my wedding gown—I thought at the Washington Airport I was livid!

"And now my parents are well, my sister is expecting another baby, I'm engaged to be married at Christmas and I've found my wedding gown."

Asked if she's sure it's the real

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Edward McClaughan

Miss Nancy Jane Marnell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Marnell of Greensburg, Pa., and Merrill Edward McClaughan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill M. McClaughan of Hope, were united in marriage on Nov. 5 in Our Lady of the Skies Chapel at Idlewild Airport in New York City.

The Rev. Stanley Fischer performed the double-ring ceremony while music was provided by the church organist and a boys choir. White chrysanthemums and stephanotis decorated the chapel.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress of cuplont silk fashioned with a Sabrina neckline of re-em-broidered Alencon lace studded with sequins and pearls. A long basque bodice was trimmed with lace at the neckline. The bouffant skirt swept into a chapel train, and the tiered veil of illusion was caught to a princess crown of seed pearls, crystals, and sequins. She carried a Glendora spiral bouquet of white orchids, white carnations, stephanotis, love roses and baby ivy.

Miss Bernadette M. Marnell of Greensburg, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She was gowned in powder blue tulle with a fitted bodice, stole-like neckline and full skirt. In her hair was a Dior bow with a face veil. She carried a dainty spiral of white Fuji mums edged with blue, white daisies, miniature roses, stephanotis and baby ivy.

Charles Milliken of New York City, served the groom as best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Marnell wore a powder blue sheath dress of silk organza with matching accessories of a deeper shade. Mrs. McClaughan, mother of the groom, wore a brown peau de soie silk broadened dress with matching accessories. Each wore a white orchid corsage.

A reception for 55 guests was held in a private home after the wedding. The couple are at home in New York City after a trip to Mexico City, Mexico.

The bride is a graduate of Greensburg High School, the University of Pennsylvania and the American Airlines Stewardess College in Dallas, Tex. Mr. McClaughan is a graduate of Hope High and Hendrix College. He served 39 months in the Naval Air Corps during World War II with much of the duty in the South Pacific. He is now employed by the U. S. Justice Department.

thing this time, she said: "Oh, I'm engaged to the same man. I just got cold feet before."

Says Little Rock Is World Famous

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Swiss churchman said Monday that the anti-disputes like the one in New Orleans and the trouble in Little Rock in 1957 have repercussions all over the world.

Dr. Heinrich Hellstern, head of the relief organization of the Swiss Evangelical Church, was here on a tour which will take him to 12 American cities.

"Events like you had in Little Rock and like those in New Orleans now have repercussions all over the world," Dr. Hellstern said. "If your people will realize this, they will understand better their own federal government."

"I am glad," he said, "that I can tell our people that the situation in Little Rock is quiet today and that it will remain quiet."

Court to Hear Tennessee Dist. Case

By GAVIN SCOTT
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court's decision to hear the Tennessee reapportionment suit is a milestone in the struggle of cities to break rural control of state legislatures, but named but Texas seems the spokesman for the plaintiffs said.

The court agreed Monday to hear the Tennessee case, a suit by 10 Tennessee voters who seek redistribution of legislative seats to reflect the shift of population from the farms to the cities.

The decision has significance far beyond the borders of Tennessee. "The Supreme Court has never before agreed to hear a legislative reapportionment case," said Harris Gilbert, one of several lawyers for the plaintiffs.

The court is a 1946 Illinois reapportionment case said that "courts ought not to enter this political thicket."

"Should the court now agree the plaintiffs' constitutional rights have been denied, a new avenue would be opened to advocates of redistricting in states where rural lawmakers have blocked every effort at reapportionment."

The Tennessee Legislature has not been redistricted since 1901, despite a provision in the state constitution that requires a count of qualified voters every 10 years and apportionment of seats in the assembly accordingly.

The chief issue before the Supreme Court is whether the federal courts have authority to compel redistricting of state legislatures. A special three-judge federal panel here, in dismissing the Tennessee suit last Dec. 21, held federal courts lacked jurisdiction.

Men Found in Car May Have Been Shot

PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Metal fragments have been found in the charred bodies of five men found sitting in a car on a lonely road near this southeastern Kentucky community.

Police Director David Espie said at Frankfort today the metal fragments had not been positively identified, but they could be either shotgun pellets or rifle bullets.

The bodies were found Sunday by an unidentified girl walking Greasy Creek road about 17 miles southeast of Pikeville. The car, with the interior scorched, but undamaged otherwise, was found in a creekbed. There was very little water around it.

Little was known about the five men except that they lived in the isolated Greasy section of the county.

A state trooper said he believed two of them — Harveny Ratliff.

Sunday, Nov. 20, will be held Wednesday, Nov. 23, at 2 p.m. at the Church of Christ in Nashville. Burial in the Center Point Cemetery with Hicks Funeral Home in charge.

Major J. Vaughn died at his home in McNab Monday, Nov. 21. Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Hicks Funeral Home.

Speculation on Complete Bowl Picture

By JACK CLARK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Speculation, rather than college football teams, filled most of the available post-season bowl spots today even after Penn State and Baylor announced their willingness to participate in the Liberty and Gator Bowls, respectively.

This pair Monday joined Washington, Arkansas and Missouri, which over the weekend, announced bowl acceptances. Four of the nine major bowls have yet to fill a spot and it is unlikely that there will be much more action in that direction until after Saturday's games when many of the eligibles wind up the regular 1960 season.

The newly organized Gotham Bowl in New York may not even get off the ground. Syracuse, the defending national and Cotton Bowl champion, and a key to a good "home draw" by the Gotham committee, withdrew from all post-season consideration Monday.

The committee still hopes to land the winner of the Army-Navy game.

The list of available narrowed down to about 10, which include: Alabama (7-1), Tennessee (5-2-2), Mississippi (8-0-1), Minnesota and Iowa both 8-1, Duke, Florida, Texas and Rice, all 7-2, and Oregon 7-2-1.

Iowa and Minnesota, Big Ten co-champions, must be eliminated if not invited to the Rose Bowl. Conference rules prohibit other bowl play.

Here is the present bowl lineup, including the speculation:

ROSE—Washington (9-1), defending Big Five and Rose Bowl champ, is in. "It's just about narrowed down to Navy, Iowa and Minnesota, with some others under consideration," Huskies coach Jim Owens said Monday night. Navy gave Washington its only loss, 15-14, this season.

SUGAR—No berths filled. Mississippi is favored to win the Southeastern Conference title, with a victory Saturday over Mississippi State and the SEC champ usually is the host. Florida and Alabama may slip in if Ole Miss falters. The visitor may be Rice if the Owls beat Baylor and tie for the Southwest Conference title.

COTTON—Arkansas (8-2) is the host. Oregon, Alabama and Tennessee have been named as possibilities.

ORANGE—Missouri (9-1), which lost to Georgia 14-0 last New Year's Day, is back. Duke, the Atlantic Coast Conference king, may be the top choice now that Syracuse has declined.

GATOR—Baylor (7-2) is in, and Florida was invited last week but put off a decision until after its final game against Miami this weekend. If Ole Miss wins the SEC title, the Gators will accept.

LIBERTY—Penn State (6-3) is back to defend its title. Texas, Tennessee and Alabama, which lost 7-0 in the inaugural last year are possibilities.

BLUEBONNET—No team has been named, but Texas seems the logical "home" choice. Again Tennessee and Alabama seem to be the choice, depending on who's left in the battle with the Liberty Bowl.

Tennessee Tech accepted a berth in the Tangerine Bowl Monday night.

Harris Wins Hall Award

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Center Wayne Harris is the 11th winner of the annual Crip Hall Homecoming award and is the first Razorback center to win that honor.

Harris was cited Saturday for his performance in Arkansas' 263 Homecoming victory over SMU Nov. 12. The award, presented by Arkansas Secretary of State C.G.

3 Games to Settle Play in the SWC

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Three games this week will clean up all the business of the Southwest Conference for the football season and decide whether Arkansas, already in the Cotton Bowl, is to be undisputed champion or share the title with Rice.

First order of business is the traditional Thanksgiving Day Texas-Texas A&M game at Austin. Nothing hangs in the balance here except a chance for Texas to tie for or win third place in the final standings — and possibly get a bowl bid.

Saturday Rice meets Baylor at Waco and if Rice wins this one it will be co-champion of the conference with Arkansas. Except that Arkansas gets the Cotton Bowl host spot by virtue of having beaten Rice during the regular season.

Arkansas clinched a tie for the title and the Cotton Bowl when it walloped Texas Tech 34-6 Saturday. Rice stayed in the running for a share of the championship by blistering Texas Christian 23-0. Baylor remained in contention for a part of second place when it downed Southern Methodist 20-7. Texas Christian and Southern Methodist, with nothing at stake, close out the season at Dallas Saturday.

Just who Arkansas is going to play in the Cotton Bowl is quite problematical, with the issue confused, but the Razorbacks aren't worried about it. They have the team to make a top showing against anybody in the Jan. 2 Dallas classic.

With three more games to count in the home attendance, the conference is looking for an increase over last year and possibly the all-time high. The league has drawn 1,269,500 for 38 games. The attendance for 40 games last year was 1,308,156. At least 125,000 is expected for this week's three games.

Bridgers said the squad voted unanimously to accept the Gator Bowl bid, although Baylor has been contacted by several other bowls.

The other Gator Bowl berth was offered to the University of Florida on Nov. 12. Southeastern Conference rules prohibit the Gators from accepting the bid until their season closes Saturday night at Miami.

Baylor has a 7-2 record and has one game remaining, against Rice (7-2) Saturday at Waco.

Arkansas in 6th Spot in National Poll

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Minnesota leaptfrogged back into first place in the weekly Associated Press football rankings today as the fight for the national college championship headed into a photo finish.

The coveted title will be decided on the results of next week's final AP poll of the season.

Minnesota barely edged out Iowa and Mississippi for the No. 1 spot. The Gophers finished with 424½ points, to 417½ for second-place Iowa. Mississippi, in third place, had 398 points.

Washington, the Big Five champion and host team in the Rose Bowl, moved up one notch to fourth with 240 points, while Missouri, the leader last week, turned in a fifth place with 241 points after a 23-7 beating from Kansas.

Arkansas, the Cotton Bowl host, was sixth, followed by Navy, Auburn, Ohio State and Kansas.

Minnesota and Iowa have finished their seasons, each with an 8-1 record and tied for the Big Ten championship.

But third-place Mississippi, the only team in the top 10 that hasn't been defeated, still has one more game. The Rebels, who boast an 8-0-1 record, play Mississippi State in their final Saturday game.

The leaders, with first-place votes in parentheses (points on a 10-0-0 etc. basis):

1. Minnesota (13½) 424½
2. Iowa (17½) 417½
3. Mississippi (13) 398
4. Washington (2) 249
5. Missouri (2) 241
6. Arkansas 226
7. Navy 188
8. Auburn (1) 149½
9. Ohio State 117
10. Kansas 48

Others receiving votes: Duke 34, Rice 34, Yale 30½, Michigan State 19, New Mexico State 9, Pen State 9, Syracuse 6, Florida 6, Texas 3, Purdue 2, Oregon 2, Michigan 2, Oregon State 1.

Yale received one first-place vote.

Baylor Accepts Gator Bowl Bid

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The Baylor Bears, offensive titans of the Southwest Conference, have accepted a Gator Bowl bid. John Piombo, Gator Bowl Selection Committee chairman, announced today he had received a definite acceptance from John H. Bridgers, Baylor football coach and athletic director, to play here Dec. 31.

Bridgers said the squad voted unanimously to accept the Gator Bowl bid, although Baylor has been contacted by several other bowls.

The other Gator Bowl berth was offered to the University of Florida on Nov. 12. Southeastern Conference rules prohibit the Gators from accepting the bid until their season closes Saturday night at Miami.

Baylor has a 7-2 record and has one game remaining, against Rice (7-2) Saturday at Waco.

Grid Ratings in Arkansas About Same

Hall dropped from second to fifth place after the victory, with Fort Smith going to second, Pine Bluff to third and El Dorado to fourth.

AL Expansion May Hit the Stormy Stage

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Del Webb and Walter O'Malley, the two titans of the major leagues, were expected to hold the center of the stormy stage today as the beleaguered American League resumed its formidable task of locating a franchise in Los Angeles.

Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, and O'Malley, head of the Los Angeles Dodgers, arrived here this morning for a summit meeting in Commissioner Ford Frick's office with league presidents Joe Cronin of the American and Warren Giles of the National.

O'Malley made his position quite clear even before he left the West Coast.

"I'm not opposed to the expansion of the American League into Los Angeles," he said, "but not in 1961."

The position of Webb and the American League is just as plain. They are determined to grant a franchise to Los Angeles, and in 1961, O'Malley notwithstanding.

Webb was dispatched to the West Coast with instructions to offer what it considers a "reasonable" settlement to O'Malley for any expenses he might have accrued in bringing the Dodgers there three years ago. O'Malley has said that compensation to the Dodgers by the new American League entry would be the least important of the conditions.

O'Malley just doesn't want the American League in Los Angeles," said Nate Dolan, the blunt-spoken vice president of the Cleveland Indians. "We made an honest attempt to abide by the commissioner's wishes to affect some kind of a fair and reasonable settlement with O'Malley. Now it's up to the commissioner to weigh all the evidence and make his decision."
